Be part of the revolution that's combining creativity and prevention to change how girls see beauty in themselves! Rewrite Beautiful is a revolution to change how girls see beauty in themselves with art for the prevention of eating disorders.

By throwing a Rewrite Beautiful Street Art Party, you are an activist for HOPE, an activist for LIFE, an activist for CHANGE!

Info

Here's everything you need to know about throwing a Street Art Party....

INVITE YOUR FRIENDS through facebook, evites, or snail mail! Let us know if you need pictures to use on your invitations and we will email them to you. Feel free to use the following paragraph on your invitations to share about what Rewrite Beautiful does:

Rewrite Beautiful is a revolution to change how girls see beauty in themselves with art for the prevention of eating disorders. Rewrite Beautiful does this through School Programs, Street Art Workshops, Outreach and Beautiful Action Campus Clubs. Rewrite Beautiful is rewriting beautiful into an ACTION; Creativity, Kindness and Strength. Come and find out through art, where your true beauty lies!

PLAN YOUR PARTY according to what will work best with your friends. Street Art Parties can be anything from an open house in the afternoon, a table in the school quad during lunch time, a dinner party, or a themed party. Get creative! A simple set-up is all you need.

AT YOUR PARTY put out colorful paper, markers, paint, stickers, glitter and (if possible) pictures of the girls participating in your party and your Rewrite Beautiful brochures. Some people like to buy Rewrite Beautiful Wristbands and give them out at the party. You can purchase our wristbands here: <http://www.rewritebeautiful.org/product/wristbands-pink-10-1999>

CREATE A PIECE OF ART prior to the party about what makes you Creative, Kind and Strong. This will allow the girls to have an idea of what they are doing.

TAKE PICS of the party and post them on the Rewrite Beautiful facebook page www.facebook.com/Rewritebeautiful for our supporters to see!

Party Format

The length of Street Art Party's varies based upon the groups needs, but we have found one hour to be the most effective length to share the Rewrite Beautiful message. If you don't have that amount of time, edit down the amount of time you spend on each topic. We have included some links to videos to help you in crafting your own Rewrite Beautiful Street Art Party.

1. Introduction of Rewrite Beautiful, its mission and its vision (10 minutes)

Here is a video of Founder and Creative Director, Irina Kanarek talking about Rewrite Beautiful:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RrmbeZKv5zI>

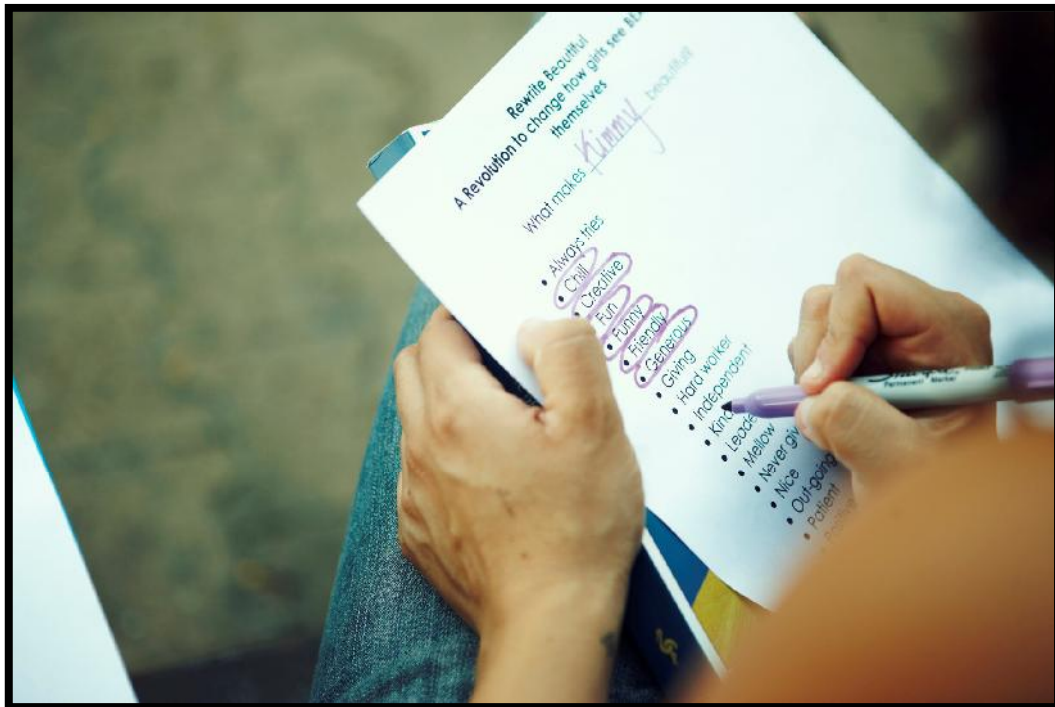

2. Why are we making Street Art? The Rewrite Beautiful Story started with Street art. Tell the story (5 minutes) You can read The Story here: <http://rewritebeautiful.org/the-story>
3. Giving hope – Tell the participants how making Rewrite Beautiful street art today will prevent eating disorders. Today we are changing the way we see beauty in ourselves and others. Tell everyone, “Now it’s time for us to Rewrite Beautiful and find our own Creativity, Kindness and Strength.” (5 minutes)
4. Have everyone get some of the paper, markers, stickers and pictures you have provided.
5. Show the girls the Street Art you already made about what makes you Creative, Kind and Strong, so the girls have an idea of what they are doing. Have all of the girls pass around the Rewrite Beautiful Street Art Worksheet and circle what they think is BEAUTIFUL; Creative, Kind and Strong about each girl. Give the papers back to the girls and have them write on their Street Art what makes them Creative, Kind and Strong. (10 minutes)
6. At the end everyone puts their street art in public. (15 minutes)
7. Group debriefing and reflection. Thank everyone for their time and ask them to check out the website www.rewritebeautiful.org and ‘LIKE’ us on Facebook (5 minutes)
8. Take pictures of the party and art and upload them to Facebook and spread our message even further. (10 minutes)

After you have done this Street Art Party and posted your pictures on Facebook let us know how it went! Send us an email, we'd love to hear how our revolution is spreading!
